Workshops for Faculty Members

Workshops are organized for faculty to emphasize POs, PSOs, and COs relating to each program/course.

Induction Programmes for Students

At the start of every academic year, newly admitted graduate and postgraduate students are provided with orientation programs. These programs are designed to acquaint them with the university/college's policies and protocols, covering aspects such as attendance expectations, academic honesty, and disciplinary procedures. Additionally, individual departments conduct tailored orientations pertaining to course outcomes, program outcomes, and program-specific outcomes.
